

THE 2018 INTERNATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION DAY

On 31 October 2003, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC). The UNCAC was launched for signing by States from 09 December 2003. This launch date has been designated by the United Nations as the International Anti-corruption Day, in which all State Parties could commemorate the coming into effect of the UNCAC. South Africa ratified this legally binding and universal anti-corruption instrument on 22 November 2004. This ratification underlined the commitment of South Africa to eradicate corruption in all sectors of society.

In order to recognise the landmark signing of the UNCAC, the Public Service Commission (PSC), the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and the University of South Africa (UNISA) will host a commemoration event for 2018, which will be held as follows:

Date : 10 December, 2018
Venue: UNISA: SENATE HALL
Time : 08h30-13h00

The commemoration for the 2018 International Anti-corruption Day will be done under the theme: “Working together to enhance an environment where the rule of law prevails”. This theme is befitting to the current anti-corruption campaign driven by government as the country concludes the process to adopt a new National Anti-corruption Strategy. The event will raise awareness, educate and call for action for citizens wherein every citizen could unite around the aspiration and purpose to eradicate corruption and promote integrity in all sectors of the South African society.
